HISTORY

In 1946, Louise Duffney took all of the money she had and opened a Gin Mill (Duff's Sheridan Patio) on the corner of Sheridan Dr. and Millersport Highway in Amherst, NY. At the time, the bar was on the outskirts of town and it took years of hard work, determination, and perseverance before it became a success. In fact, during some of the toughest years, she had a small apartment built off the back of the bar and moved herself and her 2 kids into it.

However, in 1969 her son Ron changed the fate of Duff's - and his family - by introducing wings to the menu. On a good week, Ron would sell 20 pounds of them - roughly 120 wings. It didn't take long for people to realize that Ron was making some of the best - if not the best - wings in Buffalo. His wings were saucier, spicier, and crispier than most places were making them. In 1983 at the behest local food critic his wings became "famous"... and so did his restaurant. In the 40 years since then, Duff's has focused on delivering the highest quality - and most authentic - chicken wing eating experience Buffalo has to offer. Thank you for visiting our restaurant!
