DUFF'S FAMOUS WINGS

In 1946, Louise "Duff" Duffney took what little money she had and opened a Gin Mill on the corner of Sheridan Drive in Amherst, NY. At that time, the bar was still on the outskirts of Buffalo and it took years of hard work, determination, and perseverance to become a success. During its toughest years, Louise lived in a small room at the back of the bar with her two children. In 1969, one of those kids, Ron Duff, changed the fate of Duff's by introducing wings to the menu. On a good week, Ron would sell 20 pounds of them - roughly 120 wings. It didn't take long for people to realize that Ron was making some of the best wings in Buffalo. His wings were saucier, spicier, and crisper than the competition and by 1985, local food critics had hailed his wings "famous." Over the past several decades, Duff's has been dedicated to creating the most authentic Buffalo wing experience.

Now, the Grimm family is excited to bring Duff's to their home in Elizabethtown, Kentucky.
